SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. An engineer supervising unidentified construction projects in northern Rumania has been ordered to close down two of them immediately and cut his working force on eighteen others. Since he began work on these projects this engineer has received only twenty percent of the brick and thirteen percent of the lumber required by his construction plan.
2. According to an engineer employed on one of these projects, the Ministry of Construction and the Council of Ministers call two or three times daily to inquire on the progress of the work.
3. An inspector at the Ministry of Construction states that a "general staff" of this Ministry oversees and inspects all construction projects and mobilizes construction workers for assignment to projects. All skilled machinists have been mobilized for this Ministry.
